

CEE Worldwide Entertainment Agency

Commission Policy

This agency normally charges its artistes a fee equivalent to a commission of 15 % NETT OF PROMPT PAYMENT DISCOUNT. However, we reserve the right to vary this rate at any time either in specific cases or in general. This will only be done with the agreement of the Artiste.

Discount can only be claimed if payment is made within Seven Days of the date of booking or date of artistes' receipt of payment, whichever is the later. It can only be claimed when an account is in order. (i.e. no outstanding amounts are due.)

In cases where there is a split commission or cases where there is a higher than average level of expense in obtaining the booking, this agency may charge a higher level of commission. This will be done only with the prior agreement of the artistes.

All commissions are invoiced as if they were paid later than seven days, with the amount of available discount clearly indicated on each invoice.

For example, a booking for £100.00 at the standard rate would be invoiced at £ 18. A discount of £3 would be available for payment within seven days, so if you paid within that time you would only pay £15.

Similarly, a £300.00 split commission booking might be invoiced at £ 81. A discount of £13.5 would be available for payment within seven days, so if you paid within that time you would only pay £67.5.

The date of payment shall be:

- i) In the case of payment by post, the date of the postmark on the envelope.
- ii) In the case of payment in person, the date on which that amount is physically paid.

All accounts with overdue balances that exceed 30 days will be subject to interest at the rate of 8% per month compounded.

No responsibility can be accepted for cash posted through our letterbox. If it is stolen or for any other reason we do not receive it, you will have to pay again.

We therefore recommend that you pay either by cheque, or by physically handing your cash to a member of staff or a person whose name you can take to ensure that such payments can be traced.

Payments to Artistes will usually be made by cheque drawn on our clients account.
